Mayors Corner

August

In my five years as being your Mayor, I don't recall a busier month of August than this year. There will be so much to do for the whole family during our Blueberry Harvest Festival, which runs from August 18th through to the 25th. Here is just a little sampling of what is in store: Wild Blueberry Dessert Café and Quilt Show; Artisan's Blues Festival; Bake Sale and Children's Games; Wild Blueberry Breakfast; Movie at the Capitol; Wild Blueberry Arts and Crafts; Wild Blueberry Cooking for Kids; Wild Blueberry Paint Night; Art Gallery opening. We will top it off with a Wild Blueberry Dance at the Oxford Legion.

Following straight on the heels of Oxford's Wild Blueberry Festival is the Cumberland County Exhibition. This is a pretty big year, as it marks the 100th Anniversary for the Exhibition.

There should be plenty of surprises in store. The theme for the parade (which will be held on September 1st) is "A Trip Down Memory Lane". A perfect title I think! Many of you may notice that our hanging baskets are doing wonderfully. This is due to the fact that Isaac Weatherbee is taking such good care of them. Each and every day he ensures they get plenty of water and fertilizer, helping Mother Nature make them look their best. Next time you pass Isaac, give him a toot of your horn to let him know what a great job he is doing! Speaking of doing a great job.....hats off to our summer students, Ashley Wheaton and Taze Lockhart. Not only do they help with all the recreation programs, but they also paint, weed, water, file, shred, mow, scoop, and generally anything else that needs done. Thanks to you both, Ashley and Taze. You are awesome workers, and fun to be around.

That's all for now, hope to see you all out and about.

Until next month.....

Mayor Trish
